

There are the 7 new applicants for membership on the July 20, 2013 ballot?

David Leaphart lives in Greer, SC. He is a Network Manager for Michelin. He is a NRHS and RLHS member. His interest is steam railroading and history of railroading.

Rye Gewalt lives in Holly Springs. He is retired engineer. He likes wood working, making signs and electronics. (He made the wooden signs located on the railroad property.)

Dan Oberklein lives in Winterville, NC. He is a Mechanical Engineer. He is a member of the Fort Wayne Historical Society and C&O Historical Society. He is interested in all aspects of railroad history with special interest in steam locomotive design and operation.

Ran Rice lives in Eagle Springs, NC. He is a school teacher. He is interested in maintain and repair of the railcars. Since joining in May, he has been very active with the Wednesday's Crew and working as a Train Host.

John P Vann lives in Raleigh. He is an airline pilot. He stated Everyone likes Trains. He has been active with the Wednesday's Crew since joining in April.

Joe Warner lives in Rocky Mount, NC, Retired, Member of the Stonewall/Nash Historical Society and the NC Maritime Museum. Interests is in Public Relations.

Jimmy Workman, lives in Chapel Hill, Retired. He is active in Boy Scouts. Interested in southeast railroads. Skills general building, computer networking, project manager, and customer service.